

Scottish Country Dancing

Free Introductory Class

©2013 Bob Branstrom

Scottish Country Dancers at the 2013 Valentine's Ball

Fun, Fitness, Friendship, Great Music!

- Learn steps and figures of the social dancing of Scotland.
- No experience, no partner, no kilt needed.
- Come with friends or by yourself.
- Bring flat, soft-soled shoes or tennis shoes.

2017 introductory series: 5x for $30, Sept 14–Oct 12.
Drop-in $8. On-going continuing series: 9x for $60. Spectators Free.
415-333-9372 or 415-841-9456, sfscottishdancers@gmail.com,
<http://www.sf-scottishdancers.org>

For other SCD classes around the Bay Area, see: <http://www.rscds-sf.org>.
Call for information about Youth Classes.

Thursday
September 7, 2017

8:00 PM

Class series starts
September 14, 2017
Thursdays, 8-10 PM

- On-going class for experienced dancers is held in a separate room.

*Come watch the dancing, hear the music,
at our SUMMER SOLSTICE PARTY
7:45 PM, Thursday, June 22.
FREE for Spectators!*

The Polish Club of SF
3040 22nd Street at Shotwell,
San Francisco, 94110

- Small parking lot, or nearby street parking
- Close to BART and buses
- Enter from parking lot

©2008 John Spicer

Dancers at Noe Valley Ministry

<http://www.sf-scottishdancers.org>

The San Francisco Class of The Royal Scottish Country Dance Society, San Francisco Branch, Inc.

April 2017 • SLK & PC